Do not allow domestic birds to have any contact with wild birds.

Keep any new birds separate from the rest of the flock for at least two weeks.

If advised by local authorities, vaccinate your poultry.
(Ask your agriculture officer if a vaccine is available.)